

ROUGH 'N ROCKIN BLUES
VERSATILE. AUTHENTIC. UNIQUE.

THE BLIND DOG
MAYER
GROUP

Blind Dog Mayer is a name that stands for the many facets and essence of blues music. This artist, known for his charismatic stage presence and his deep connection with the blues, has created a unique place for himself in the music scene.

Since 25 years on stage, Mayer has established himself as a singer and harmonica player as well as a headliner in clubs and festivals and has successfully demonstrated his skills at renowned events such as the International Jazz & Bluestage Verden, Blues Express Festival Differdange and the Blues 'n Jazz Rallye Luxembourg and many more. His musical path is proof of his dedication and love for the blues.

Successes and collaborations

Over the last few decades, Mayer has achieved both television appearances (SWR TV / SR TV etc.) and TOP 10 chart positions (IBBA Blues Charts UK / Amazon Blues Charts) in collaboration with various formations. His successful collaboration on album productions and support appearances for international stars such as Glenn Hughes (UK), Walter Trout (USA) and Klaus Major Heuser (GER) are proof of his versatility in the blues scene. He has also worked with many well-known names on the international blues scene as a sideman / special guest.

The return to the stage

With the new project “THE BLIND DOG MAYER GROUP”, he returns to the live stages in 2025 after a five-year break. This group has dedicated itself to the raw pace of rocking blues and combines different musical styles to give each song its own unmistakable stamp.

Musical diversity

The band plays interpretations of originals as well as their own songs. Honest to themselves and even more so in their music, their repertoire covers a wide range, from harmonica blues to blues rock to hard boogie and even danceable Texas blues 'n roll. They only choose songs that they like, resulting in a diverse range of influences.

An unforgettable concert experience

From songs from the 70s to modern times, the band's instrumentation, which includes the harmonica played by Blind Dog Mayer and his authentically powerful front vocals, provides a groove that gets straight to your feet. The musical performance is underpinned by the nationally touring band members of THE BLIND DOG MAYER GROUP, the innovative guitar playing of “Slice” and the perfectly coordinated groove section with drum and bass by “Marco Schmieden and Michael Jung”. This ensures an entertaining and high-quality concert evening from the band.

The return of Blind Dog Mayer with his new band project promises an exciting musical journey. Fans and newcomers alike are invited to join them “on the road” and enjoy the musical diversity and passion of the blues. THE BLIND DOG MAYER GROUP is ready to conquer the stages and thrill audiences with their unique blend of ROUGH 'N ROCKIN BLUES.
